

4+4w
May/June 09

Real Weddings

The white and cream calla lilies, roses and hydrangeas were all arranged by a family friend

"Our chocolate, fruit and sponge cake was by Cake Design in Surrey (cake-design.co.uk) - we froze one of the tiers for a future christening!"

Victoria's shoes were by Joseph Azagury at Browns Bride (brownsfashion.com)

Victoria's dress was by Rebecca Street at Browns Bride (rebecca.street.com) and David's suit was from mccannbespoketailoring.com

KEEPING IT CLASSIC

Cathy Howes
Real Weddings
editor

Victoria and David Emburey chose One Great George Street (onegreatgeorgestreet.com) in London for their May wedding. "Our friends and family live in the capital so it was easy for them to arrange babysitters and get cabs home," says Victoria. "After the ceremony, we had photos taken in St James Park (above) and at Westminster Bridge near St Thomas Hospital, where I was born!" They chose a classic cream and white theme. "We've learnt a lot from friends' weddings," says Victoria, "like keeping centrepieces low so guests can talk across the tables, using long-burning candles so they last all night, and hiring a videographer to really capture the atmosphere (bsvideo.co.uk)."

The ornate chandeliers complemented the candleabra and linen from Alternative Occasions (stressfreeday.com)

For more inspiration, turn over

The bespoke stationery was by adamsprinters.co.uk